Requirements:  Yahoo Widget Engine Zonal Clock

Requirements: Zonal Clock is free, but it has some requirements. First of all, it needs the Widget Engine package. It also needs to be included in your Yahoo profile to function. The Yahoo Widget Engine (yui.yahooapis.com) is used to work with the Yahoo platform. You'll need to download the Widget Engine package and place it somewhere on your computer so you can install it later. Once you do that, you can open the Yahoo profile you want to apply the Widget Engine to and go to "Customize on This Page." Then click the "Manage Widgets" button and drag the Zonal Clock widget into the space on the page. When you click the button to apply the widget, the Zonal Clock widget will be installed and ready to be used in your Yahoo profile.
